

Pair of royal candlesticks for Louis-Philippe at the Château de Neuilly

Circa: 19th century

19th century

Gilded bronze

30.5 x 0 cm (12 x 0 inches)

Pair of early 19th century, bronze and ormolu candlesticks, richly decorated pattern, circa 1820-1830.

Château de Neuilly inventory mark and Louis-Philippe LPN monogram under a royal crown stamp (Neuilly castle, set on fire in 1848, private property of d'Orleans family right next to Paris, one of the favourite royal residences).

Our candlesticks also bear the L.P.O mark under open crown which was affixed to the furniture and works of art of the future King Louis-Philippe between 1821 and 1830

In excellent condition.
